In this case, the candidate must write on the envelope "External call no. 3/2016"

EVALUATION PROCEDURES AND NOMINATION

Applications will be evaluated by a Department Committee according to the criteria stated below. Each candidate will be assigned a total score and the list of eligible candidates and their scores will be published on the department web site.

The following criteria will be used by the Department Committee to approve and evaluate the applications:

1. Academic qualifications and professional experience
2. Publications, research and innovation activities
3. Participation to association and journals' boards
4. Consistency of the above with the project's goals

The candidate with the highest score will be proposed the appointment.

CONTRACTUAL FULFILLMENTS

The appointment will be regulated under an independent contractor agreement. In case the appointed candidate is a non-resident, s/he will receive the entire gross salary, and will be held responsible of the entire fiscal and social security dues within her/his country of residence.

The appointed candidate will be required to provide a written report on a maximum of three scientific deliverables of the project, and to take part as keynote speaker into the final workshop, to be held at the University of Torino presumably in the month of June 2017.

SALARY AND TRAVEL EXPENSES

The appointed advisor will receive a gross salary of € 2,500 and reimbursement of travel expenses for participation to the final workshop.

The salary will be paid in two rounds:

- € 1,500 at signature of the agreement
- € 1,000 at workshop completion.

Travel expenses will be reimbursed for economy-class flights or second-class train up to a maximum of:

- € 1,500 for travels from/to the Americas, Africa, Asia and Australia
- € 600 for intracontinental travels.

Travel must be direct or include only necessary stopovers due to flight connections. Specifically, travel dates need to clearly correspond to the workshop dates. Private extensions or stopovers must be agreed with EST before booking.

Accommodation will be organized and directly paid by EST unless otherwise agreed. Hotel accommodation usually includes breakfasts. Lunches and dinners not included in the workshop program will be reimbursed provided they correspond to the workshop dates.

If previously arranged, EST will reimburse other necessary costs.
